

Contemporary Pool Garden

Maremma - Tuscany . Italy

Barfoot Design were appointed to redesign a tired 1960's swimming pool for the clients' family to enjoy private retreats.

Barfoot kept the original pool outline and introduced new planting and a pool terrace which offered an expansive area to lounge in the summer sun. A vine-covered pergola adjacent to the bar and kitchen area provides an idyllic place to relax away from the sun.

A wood fired sauna was placed at the rear of the pergola which adds another level of luxury and wellness. The low maintenance planting offered a simple and calming vibe, mainly using grasses punctuated with areas of architectural yucca.
